13 November 1956

1. Executive Session

At 1530 the Chairman requested an executive session, which continued until 1635.

2. Approval of Minutes

a. 5 November Meeting
(IAC-M-264)

Approved as written.

b. 6 November Meeting
(IAC-M-265)

Approved as written. After Admiral Frost raised a question with respect to release of SNIE 11-9-56 and [] to USIA (IAC-M-265, Secretary's Note 2), the members exchanged views on this matter and agreed that these estimates should be released to USIA. The members also agreed that hereafter the question of the release of special national intelligence estimates to USIA should be considered by the IAC at the same meeting at which such estimates are approved by the IAC.

5. Review of Developments
in Eastern Europe

The members exchanged views on developments in Eastern Europe. Mr. Armstrong referred to the desirability of a review by the Board of National Estimates of extant estimates touching on these areas, with a view to suggesting to the IAC possible revisions in the light of recent developments. In this connection, Mr. Kent stated that the Board was preparing an NSC briefing note for Mr. Dulles which dealt with such developments, and noted that this paper might be circulated later to the IAC members for information and possible coordination.

6. Information Report to the IAC
on the Defector Program
